

November News & Updates

Oliver Bedeman Brighton Highlife

Brighton Highlife has now drawn to a close. Thank you so much to everyone who visited and supported Oliver Bedeman and his solo exhibition of works with us. It has been a treat to have the gallery filled with the dreamlike atmosphere Oliver's figurative paintings encapsulate.

The full collection of works is still available to view on our website: here.

Ros Newman Woman of Steel

With the very sad news of Ros Newman's recent passing we have been reflecting back on her life as an inspirational woman and prolific artist. Her Woman of Steel retrospective with us in 2019 showcases her lifetime work as a sculptor; her beautiful creations that hold so much of who she is remind us that we will always have a part of her.

Ros developed her unique technique of oxy-acetylene welding in the early 60s and had an incredible artistic career spanning over more than half a century. Ros transformed heavy steel into airy, delicate figures; each piece encapsulates so much effortless movement, so full of life. Ros would sketch not in pencil, but in wire, creating 3D sketches. Our exhibition with Ros followed her closing down of her studio in 2018 and her welding equipment went to another woman of steel, sculptor Rachael Long.

Our deepest sympathies go out to her daughter Delphi, granddaughter Cece and nieces Chloe and Damaris.

"Steel found me and I embraced her with all my passion..."
- Ros Newman

Christmas Open Studios

Thursday 16th December

5-8pm

The Fairhurst studio holders present a Christmas Open Studios; opening the doors to their studios to showcase their recent Christmas Endeavours. They each will be offering a chance to look around their spaces and see where and how they create their individual works, with a glass of warm mulled wine and mince pies.

We look forward to sharing more about our upcoming events and welcoming you into the gallery very soon.
